

volita [REDACTED]

[Marriage Amendment Bill Submission]

volita [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

To the Government Administration Select Committee,

Dear Select Committee Members

I support marriage equality for all New Zealanders and I support the Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill. I urge you to progress this Bill.

Marriage is a legal institution that should be open to all New Zealanders. All kiwis are equal before the law, and our legislation should be fair, equal and should not discriminate.

I don't want to attend the Select Committee to speak to my submission.

In a liberal loving nation anybody regardless of their personal preferences should be able to marry who they love. Equality for all is what we need and it should have happened already along time ago. Love is what we need more of, let everybody be happy. L

All kiwis deserve the chance to get married. This Bill will give them that chance. I urge you to support the Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill, and to vote for it at its second reading vote.

All kiwis deserve to have their relationships recognised by the State they are a citizen of. All kiwis deserve to have their love and commitment to each other provided for in law.

Marriage is about love. It is about two people formalising the relationship that they have built together because they want to make an enduring commitment to each other. What sex they are is irrelevant. It's only fair that everyone can marry the person t

The Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill will remove a historical discrimination that has no place in modern New Zealand.

This Bill will be good for marriage. More stable, committed and loving couples choosing to support each other and their families will strengthen marriage and be good for kiwi communities.

This Bill will be good for families. Every father, mother, brother and sister deserves the chance to see their loved ones enjoy starting a journey with the partner they want to spend the rest of their life with.

This Bill will be good for all New Zealanders. Every kiwi deserves an equal chance and a fair go and every kiwi wants to see their friends, family and loved ones be given that chance.

Canterbury

To the Government Administration Select Committee,

Dear Select Committee Members

I support marriage equality for all New Zealanders and I support the Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill. I urge you to progress this Bill.

Marriage is a legal institution that should be open to all New Zealanders. All kiwis are equal before the law, and our legislation should be fair, equal and should not discriminate.

I don't want to attend the Select Committee to speak to my submission.

All kiwis deserve the chance to get married. This Bill will give them that chance. I urge you to support the Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill, and to vote for it at its second reading vote.

All kiwis deserve to have their relationships recognised by the State they are a citizen of. All kiwis deserve to have their love and commitment to each other provided for in law.

This Bill will be good for marriage. More stable, committed and loving couples choosing to support each other and their families will strengthen marriage and be good for kiwi communities.

This Bill will be good for families. Every father, mother, brother and sister deserves the chance to see their loved ones enjoy starting a journey with the partner they want to spend the rest of their life with.

This Bill will be good for all New Zealanders. Every kiwi deserves an equal chance and a fair go and every kiwi wants to see their friends, family and loved ones be given that chance.

Auckland

To the Government Administration Select Committee,

Dear Select Committee Members

I support marriage equality for all New Zealanders and I support the Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill. I urge you to progress this Bill.

Marriage is a legal institution that should be open to all New Zealanders. All kiwis are equal before the law, and our legislation should be fair, equal and should not discriminate.

I don't want to attend the Select Committee to speak to my submission.

All kiwis deserve the chance to get married. This Bill will give them that chance. I urge you to support the Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill, and to vote for it at its second reading vote.

All kiwis deserve to have their relationships recognised by the State they are a citizen of. All kiwis deserve to have their love and commitment to each other provided for in law.

Marriage is about love. It is about two people formalising the relationship that they have built together because they want to make an enduring commitment to each other. What sex they are is irrelevant. It's only fair that everyone can marry the person t

The Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill will remove a historical discrimination that has no place in modern New Zealand.

This Bill will be good for marriage. More stable, committed and loving couples choosing to support each other and their families will strengthen marriage and be good for kiwi communities.

This Bill will be good for families. Every father, mother, brother and sister deserves the chance to see their loved ones enjoy starting a journey with the partner they want to spend the rest of their life with.

This Bill will be good for all New Zealanders. Every kiwi deserves an equal chance and a fair go and every kiwi wants to see their friends, family and loved ones be given that chance.

[Redacted]
[Marriage Amendment Bill Submission]

[Redacted]
Wellington

To the Government Administration Select Committee,

Dear Select Committee Members

I support marriage equality for all New Zealanders and I support the Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill. I urge you to progress this Bill.

Marriage is a legal institution that should be open to all New Zealanders. All kiwis are equal before the law, and our legislation should be fair, equal and should not discriminate.

I don't want to attend the Select Committee to speak to my submission.

All kiwis deserve the chance to get married. This Bill will give them that chance. I urge you to support the Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill, and to vote for it at its second reading vote.

All kiwis deserve to have their relationships recognised by the State they are a citizen of. All kiwis deserve to have their love and commitment to each other provided for in law.

The Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill will remove a historical discrimination that has no place in modern New Zealand.

This Bill will be good for marriage. More stable, committed and loving couples choosing to support each other and their families will strengthen marriage and be good for kiwi communities.

This Bill will be good for families. Every father, mother, brother and sister deserves the chance to see their loved ones enjoy starting a journey with the partner they want to spend the rest of their life with.

This Bill will be good for all New Zealanders. Every kiwi deserves an equal chance and a fair go and every kiwi wants to see their friends, family and loved ones be given that chance.

[Marriage Amendment Bill Submission]

Auckland

To the Government Administration Select Committee,

Dear Select Committee Members

I support marriage equality for all New Zealanders and I support the Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill. I urge you to progress this Bill.

Marriage is a legal institution that should be open to all New Zealanders. All kiwis are equal before the law, and our legislation should be fair, equal and should not discriminate.

I don't want to attend the Select Committee to speak to my submission.

My homosexual friends deserve to be able to exercise the same rights as I do as a heterosexual New Zealander. This includes the right to marry whomever they choose. Discrimination against people on the basis of sexual orientation has no place in New Zeala

Wellington

To the Government Administration Select Committee,

Dear Select Committee Members

I support marriage equality for all New Zealanders and I support the Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill. I urge you to progress this Bill.

Marriage is a legal institution that should be open to all New Zealanders. All kiwis are equal before the law, and our legislation should be fair, equal and should not discriminate.

I don't want to attend the Select Committee to speak to my submission.

All kiwis deserve the chance to get married. This Bill will give them that chance. I urge you to support the Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill, and to vote for it at its second reading vote.

All kiwis deserve to have their relationships recognised by the State they are a citizen of. All kiwis deserve to have their love and commitment to each other provided for in law.

Marriage is about love. It is about two people formalising the relationship that they have built together because they want to make an enduring commitment to each other. What sex they are is irrelevant. It's only fair that everyone can marry the person t

The Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill will remove a historical discrimination that has no place in modern New Zealand.

This Bill will be good for marriage. More stable, committed and loving couples choosing to support each other and their families will strengthen marriage and be good for kiwi communities.

This Bill will be good for families. Every father, mother, brother and sister deserves the chance to see their loved ones enjoy starting a journey with the partner they want to spend the rest of their life with.

This Bill will be good for all New Zealanders. Every kiwi deserves an equal chance and a fair go and every kiwi wants to see their friends, family and loved ones be given that chance.

Auckland

To the Government Administration Select Committee,

Dear Select Committee Members

I support marriage equality for all New Zealanders and I support the Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill. I urge you to progress this Bill.

Marriage is a legal institution that should be open to all New Zealanders. All kiwis are equal before the law, and our legislation should be fair, equal and should not discriminate.

I want to attend the Select Committee to speak to my submission.

All kiwis deserve the chance to get married. This Bill will give them that chance. I urge you to support the Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill, and to vote for it at its second reading vote.

All kiwis deserve to have their relationships recognised by the State they are a citizen of. All kiwis deserve to have their love and commitment to each other provided for in law.

Marriage is about love. It is about two people formalising the relationship that they have built together because they want to make an enduring commitment to each other. What sex they are is irrelevant. It's only fair that everyone can marry the person t

The Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill will remove a historical discrimination that has no place in modern New Zealand.

This Bill will be good for marriage. More stable, committed and loving couples choosing to support each other and their families will strengthen marriage and be good for kiwi communities.

This Bill will be good for families. Every father, mother, brother and sister deserves the chance to see their loved ones enjoy starting a journey with the partner they want to spend the rest of their life with.

This Bill will be good for all New Zealanders. Every kiwi deserves an equal chance and a fair go and every kiwi wants to see their friends, family and loved ones be given that chance.

Auckland

To the Government Administration Select Committee,

Dear Select Committee Members

I support marriage equality for all New Zealanders and I support the Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill. I urge you to progress this Bill.

Marriage is a legal institution that should be open to all New Zealanders. All kiwis are equal before the law, and our legislation should be fair, equal and should not discriminate.

I don't want to attend the Select Committee to speak to my submission.

All kiwis deserve the chance to get married. This Bill will give them that chance. I urge you to support the Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill, and to vote for it at its second reading vote.

All kiwis deserve to have their relationships recognised by the State they are a citizen of. All kiwis deserve to have their love and commitment to each other provided for in law.

Marriage is about love. It is about two people formalising the relationship that they have built together because they want to make an enduring commitment to each other. What sex they are is irrelevant. It's only fair that everyone can marry the person t

The Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill will remove a historical discrimination that has no place in modern New Zealand.

This Bill will be good for marriage. More stable, committed and loving couples choosing to support each other and their families will strengthen marriage and be good for kiwi communities.

This Bill will be good for families. Every father, mother, brother and sister deserves the chance to see their loved ones enjoy starting a journey with the partner they want to spend the rest of their life with.

This Bill will be good for all New Zealanders. Every kiwi deserves an equal chance and a fair go and every kiwi wants to see their friends, family and loved ones be given that chance.

[Marriage Amendment Bill Submission]

Otago

To the Government Administration Select Committee,

Dear Select Committee Members

I support marriage equality for all New Zealanders and I support the Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill. I urge you to progress this Bill.

Marriage is a legal institution that should be open to all New Zealanders. All kiwis are equal before the law, and our legislation should be fair, equal and should not discriminate.

I don't want to attend the Select Committee to speak to my submission.

All kiwis deserve the chance to get married. This Bill will give them that chance. I urge you to support the Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill, and to vote for it at its second reading vote.

All kiwis deserve to have their relationships recognised by the State they are a citizen of. All kiwis deserve to have their love and commitment to each other provided for in law.

Canterbury

To the Government Administration Select Committee,

Dear Select Committee Members

I support marriage equality for all New Zealanders and I support the Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill. I urge you to progress this Bill.

Marriage is a legal institution that should be open to all New Zealanders. All kiwis are equal before the law, and our legislation should be fair, equal and should not discriminate.

I don't want to attend the Select Committee to speak to my submission.

My family has always believed in equality.

And I don't mean the equality where 'everyone's equal, except the ones we don't like', I mean equality the way it's supposed to be meant. Where it doesn't matter what gender, race or religion you are, you are eq

All kiwis deserve the chance to get married. This Bill will give them that chance. I urge you to support the Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill, and to vote for it at its second reading vote.

All kiwis deserve to have their relationships recognised by the State they are a citizen of. All kiwis deserve to have their love and commitment to each other provided for in law.

Marriage is about love. It is about two people formalising the relationship that they have built together because they want to make an enduring commitment to each other. What sex they are is irrelevant. It's only fair that everyone can marry the person t

The Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill will remove a historical discrimination that has no place in modern New Zealand.

This Bill will be good for marriage. More stable, committed and loving couples choosing to support each other and their families will strengthen marriage and be good for kiwi communities.

This Bill will be good for families. Every father, mother, brother and sister deserves the chance to see their loved ones enjoy starting a journey with the partner they want to spend the rest of their life with.

This Bill will be good for all New Zealanders. Every kiwi deserves an equal chance and a fair go and every kiwi wants to see their friends, family and loved ones be given that chance.

Auckland

To the Government Administration Select Committee,

Dear Select Committee Members

I support marriage equality for all New Zealanders and I support the Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill. I urge you to progress this Bill.

Marriage is a legal institution that should be open to all New Zealanders. All kiwis are equal before the law, and our legislation should be fair, equal and should not discriminate.

I want to attend the Select Committee to speak to my submission.

If you love someone and you want to spend the rest of your life with them, then you should be able to, know one should tell me that I cant, especially in this day and age. Its an embarrasment that the government hasnt passed this already.

My partner and I have now been together for 7 years and we both want to get married, we want the same rights as a hetrosexual couple. We pay our taxes, we teach, we employ people, we donate alot of our money to charities, we give alot to children, we are good people.

I hope soon I will make my wife to be happy and full fill her dream of being a bride at our own wedding!!

This Bill will be good for marriage. More stable, committed and loving couples choosing to support each other and their families will strengthen marriage and be good for kiwi communities.

All kiwis deserve the chance to get married. This Bill will give them that chance. I urge you to support the Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill, and to vote for it at its second reading vote.

This Bill will be good for all New Zealanders. Every kiwi deserves an equal chance and a fair go and every kiwi wants to see their friends, family and loved ones be given that chance.

The Marriage (Definition of Marriage) Amendment Bill will remove a historical discrimination that has no place in modern New Zealand.

Marriage is about love. It is about two people formalising the relationship that they have built together because they want to make an enduring commitment to each other. What sex they are is irrelevant. It's only fair that every

All kiwis deserve to have their relationships recognised by the State they are a citizen of. All kiwis deserve to have their love and commitment to each other provided for in law.